

SORA

Open a world of reading

WHAT IS SORA?

SORA is the new provincial eLibrary created by the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development. The collection includes fiction and non-fiction, French and English, and covers a variety of student interests. Students can access over 9,000 e-books, audiobooks, or read-alongs in a range of reading levels. Books can be accessed and checked in and out 24/7 at home or at school with an internet connection and either a computer, laptop, ipad, or mobile phone. This is a free service and is great for snow days, sick days, vacation and more!

HOW DO I ACCESS SORA?

- 1) Website: soraapp.com
- 2) APP: Sora (free iOS or Android)

eBook

audiobook

read-along

HOW DO I LOG INTO SORA?

*Click "Find My School"

*Type: NB (we use NB because the eLibrary is provincial & not school specific)

*When New Brunswick Department of Education and Early Childhood Development appears, click "This is my School"

*Under "Sign into your school" click the arrow for the drop-down menu and select: "Students"

*Click: "sign in using student"

*Type: nbss\ followed by your username and password that you use for the computer lab and classroom computer or ipad. Do not use your email address

i.e. nbss\abcdef1234

HAPPY READING!!!

