Please join us for our Annual Christmas Concert. The students have been working hard and are really looking forward to performing for you. All are welcome!

CAREER WEEK AT AES!

Career week was a big success! Students learned about all kinds of different jobs and explored their strengths and personal interests. Thank you to all the families who took the time to visit our classrooms on career week to share what they do for a living with our students.

HOME & SCHOOL NEWS

Hello December!

We are so excited for all the fun activities going on this month!

We have our Christmas dinner at the Apohaqui hall for the students on Dec. 19th with the preparation the evening of the 18th. If you'd like to come help out please reach out as we can never have enough volunteers. This is a really fun day for the children and everyone really looks forward to it. We even have a special guest that will be making an appearance !

Our hot lunch options from January to March will be Chicken Soup and half a grilled cheese, Pizza and one other option to be determined. See order slip.

Our next meeting will be Dec 5th at 7pm. Topics up for discussion are the Christmas dinner final plans and totals for our fundraisers.
