As we head into the final days and weeks of the year there is so much good to report!

- Our Homeroom competitions are heating up with Pictionary nearly completed and dodgeball around the corner!
- Our Performing Arts department has launched an Instagram account and are in final stages of rehearsal for this WEDNESDAY's 70's music Evening (see page 3)
- Our SRC held a highly successful trivia night this past week and all I have heard are rave reviews!
- Our Leadership Class is starting intramurals and there are details and team lists included in the newsletter!

We are also heading into some important times for both academic and emotional well-being.

- Parent Teacher Conferences are next week. They will be offered both as in person or virtual meetings – YOU CHOOSE! You can book by following this LINK.
- Ramadan began on Saturday and will run for the next month. Our Muslim students will be fasting during daylight hours which we should all be mindful of in our dealings. Monday during homeroom we will learn more about this important holiday.

Finally, we remain focused on ending the school year in positive learning environments.

1. Cellphones must be away, in the cell hotel or in bookbags, for a minimum of the first 30 minutes. They may only be used with express permission of the teacher.
2. Only one person may leave the classroom at a time, and they must leave their cellphone behind. They should be gone for a reasonable amount of time. Students will be given notes if they have permission to be out of class.
3. Students must work in their assigned classrooms and may not work in alternate spaces without prior arrangements.

Supporting Your Students @Home

Q3 ends on April 6 – Time to Check your Grades

- Students and Families should be consulting PowerSchool at least once per week to check on grades and attendance.
- Remember that every BLUE NUMBER is clickable and will show you a detailed list of how the number was calculated.
- INC = INCOMPLETE. If your student is receiving an INC or has many blank or empty columns, they are at risk of not receiving the credit.
- Please contact the teacher via e-mail if you are concerned about any of the grades.
- April 11 Report cards will be issued and bookings for parent teacher will open.
