

KVHS Exam Exemption Guidelines

August 2017

In keeping with the ASD-S Attendance Matters initiative encouraging students to be in school and on time, students may apply for one exam exemption per semester.

Attendance Exemption:

An exam in a course may be exempted with a maximum of three absences per semester (at the discretion of the school) in any one class. More than 3 absences in any class will result in ineligibility to exempt in all classes. Students must be passing all 5 courses in order to obtain an Attendance Exemption.

Criteria:

1. A student/parent is required to provide excuses for all classes for which they are absent. A written note, email, or verbal contact by parent, indicating the reason for the absence, is expected within five (5) school days of the student returning to school.
2. A student shall not accumulate any more than three excused absences in any course in which the student is enrolled.
3. Classes missed due to co-curricular and extracurricular activities are not classified as absences. However, schools should monitor the number of classes individual students miss due to co-curricular and extracurricular activities.
4. If a student comes to class tardy on two occasions, twice tardy will be considered as one absence.
5. All major assessment components (other than the final assessments/examination) in each of the courses which s/he is enrolled must be complete.
6. A student who earns an examination exemption but chooses to write the examination may take the mark reflected by the higher of the two options. In other words, the examination mark would be included in the calculation of the final grade if a higher grade is the result. If the examination results in a lower grade, the examination mark is not included in the calculation of the term's work.
7. A subject may only be exempted once per school year. (e.g. GMF10 and NRF10)
8. A student must write one of Foundations 11 and Pre-Calculus 11 and one of Pre-Calculus 12A and Pre-Calculus 12B, regardless of the year or semester in which the course is taken.
