

Mr Franken Franken Stien!

One day when I was at school all the kids were here and Mr Frank was here too. But I felt wierd, like something huge was going to happen.

Mr Frank just kept teaching math when This gigantic green thing showed up. Right then I noticed he had screws in his head he wore ripped and torn clothing! It could only be one thing Franken Franken Stien.

While our guest was here, he sat beside Drew and stared at him. Mr Frank was still teaching long division and sometimes looking over at our guest. Franken Stien kept making sounds like Ughh croak! Then Mr Frank gave us a math sheet. Franken Stien tried to do the math but he had no brain. If you know what I mean.

After, everyone took out their math books Franken Stien didn't have one. So he went to Mrs Killpatrick's purple room and stole the textbook. Grrrrr! Probaly after an hour, maybe two, we finished math. The best part was Franken Stien rocked at math now, he could do 1283×71 in his head! He can even do it with out a brain. I mean thats cool!

Finally, We were getting ready to go home when Franken Stien stopped us to say...

"Watch channel five tonight."
So we went home and watched channel five when we discovered.....
..... Franken Stien is now our Prime Minister!!!!
Ughhhh.

THE END!
