Once upon a time it was a scary night and with clouds in the air wait a second here this isn't a halloween story.

It was a spring morning and we were playing soccer at school.

Then poof every body was gone except me, Emma, Lauren, Ben, Dylan and Calam. I said "What the heck?" We all started looking. Then we found aliens. They put us in hand cuffs, took us to their ship. They took us up in a huge ball where everyone else was.

They had to make a plan.

The plan was to ^{pretend} pretend that Some one was Sick they would Take him to the alien doctor and he would leave the door
open and we would sneak out.
So Ben perted to be Sick
we got out one problem The Ship was HUGE! we looked Top to Bottom on the las try we found it so we grabbed ben and got out of there.

When we got out we all Ran ~~ay~~ back to the school.
When we got Back it was 10:00 pm. We all said that was the werdis day ever!!!

The End 😊
