Good afternoon Panther families! This is Greg Norton writing from PES, with a few updates regarding upcoming events at Princess Elizabeth School for Monday, Jan. 30th – Friday, Feb. 3rd.

Learning to Read: There are ways you can support your child's reading at home. Next week there will be online sessions for parents/caregivers on how to support children to read. This is for families whose children are learning to read at any age. Please register at this link for those interested: parent/grandparent sessions \(google.com\)

Grade 5 Intensive French: In grade 5, each student participates in 5 months of Intensive French and 5 months following the regular English Prime curriculum. On Monday, January 30th, your child will be switching classrooms, programs, and homeroom teachers. If your Grade 5 student was in Ms. McDougall's classroom following the Intensive French program, their homeroom will now be Ms. Thompson. If your child was participating in English Prime with Ms. Thompson, they will now be in Ms. McDougall's homeroom. All students will continue to receive French language instruction; however, the instructional minutes will vary. If you have any questions or concerns, please reach out at any time: Ms. McDougall: jenna.mcdougall@nbed.nb.ca and/or Ms. Thompson: Janine.thompson@nbed.nb.ca
