Student Poem

The snow is like glitter, sparkling in the day,
And the trees are people, shivering as they sway.

The ice is like paper, markings everywhere,
The blades of skates slice through, the skaters without care.

The hills are like desserts, dusted with snow,
As the snowflakes dance, putting on a show.

The kids are like mice, running all over,
They go from fort to fort, like playing Red Rover.

The snowsuits are large, quite frankly a marshmallow,
"It is time to come in!" the parents bellow.

The winter wonderland is beautiful, everything in white,
But when the sun sets, it is truly quite a sight.

By Hailey Janes-Cawley
