

Pattern/Texture

Texture refers to the surface quality in a work of art. Texture can suggest emotions by linking with the memory of how things feel.

Cross hatching is one way that we can give the idea of texture.

There are three keys to creating texture with cross hatching:

- The distance between lines
- The weight (darkness or lightness of the lines)
- The lead type in the Pencil

Cross hatching illustrating texture

Assignment:

Complete the cross hatching assignment. Get a copy from your teacher.

You will need to link to these sites:

Cross Hatching Lesson

Video

