

Barkers Point School

NEWSLETTER NO. 7

MARCH 2019

Winter is winding down and the countdown is on for Spring. The snow has certainly piled up over the past few weeks and the warmer temperatures will be welcomed by all.

March Break starts on Friday; the staff of Barkers Point wishes all their families a wonderful week of rest. For those travelling to a warmer climate we wish you a safe and enjoyable trip.

Welcome to Barkers Point School

Barkers Point School welcomes six new STU candidates for eight weeks following March Break. The candidates name and the teacher they will be working with are:

| | |
|-------------------|-----------------|
| Ondreya Beals | Mrs Campbell |
| Samantha Saulis | Mrs. Lloyd |
| Brittany Akmens | Miss Gorman |
| Erin Decoste | Mrs. Virgoe |
| Cassidy Hennigar | Madame Allison |
| Celeste Wikkerink | Madame Tremblay |

We look forward to working with these young teacher candidates over the next couple of months.

TNB

Theatre New Brunswick will be at the school on Friday, March 1st to present

Gretel & Hansel. The students and staff look forward to this drama presentation.

Staff Change

Mr. Burrell has accepted a position as Vice Principal at Priestman Street School for the remainder of the school year. Mrs. Morine will be replacing Mr. Burrell. Barkers Point School welcomes her to this new position and wish her the best as she transitions into our school.

Daylight Savings

Just a reminder to set your clocks ahead on Sunday, March 10th.

Do you know which province in Canada does not 'fall' back or 'spring' ahead?

Pancake Breakfasts

On Wednesday, March 13th the students in grades K-2 will be treated to a pancake breakfast. This will include fruit and a drink as well. On Thursday, March 14th the students in grades 3-5 will have their pancake breakfast. This special treat is prepared by the dedicated staff of Barkers Point School.

Thank You

The staff of Barkers Point School would like to thank all the Home & School Association for the delicious meal you provided to them during Staff Appreciation Week. Thank you to our two fantastic chefs who prepared the meal! It was such a wonderful treat!

Professional Learning Day

The next Professional Learning day for staff of ASD-W is scheduled for Friday, March 22nd. Half of this day is dedicated to report cards and the other half is dedicated to staff training titled ESS Connect. There will be no classes for students on this date. Classes resume on Monday, March 25th.

Your Child and the Internet

“2.3 billion people in the world are on social media. We are pretty sure it is here to stay.”

This hour long presentation is for parents with children aged 5-12. We will be covering the following topics:

- how to help your children be safe, smart and kind online
- Safe and fun websites
- How to set up passwords and restrict access to specific sites
- Educate your child on the power and responsible use of the internet.

Mr. Campbell hopes to see you on March 20th at 6:00 pm for this learning-filled and important presentation! If you have any questions please contact him at 453-5402.
