

Weekly News

Mrs. Coulombe's Class September 19th-23rd

Reminders

School fees are due. Please contact the office to make arrangements if you have not submitted $45 for your child's school supplies.

Please return the weekly news duotang and reading folders on Thursday each week. Thank you.

*Please return the communication bag each day. Homework and other important notices will not be sent home on that day if the communication bag is not here.

Flicker Awards

Your child may come home with a Flicker Award for being safe, being respectful, or being responsible at school. Please celebrate this recognition at home.

Upcoming Events

There will be a Home & School meeting this evening at 5:30pm. Come learn about how you can participate. The PSSC will meet at 6:30pm.

Learning Focus for the Week

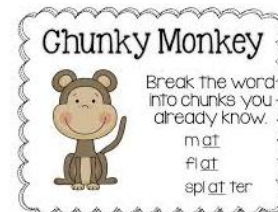

Literacy: This week I will be finishing up individual reading assessments and will start phonological awareness assessments. This information will allow me to target specific learning goals for your child.

Word family- all

Letters to review: B and O

Sight Words- for, you, he, on, has

Reading Strategy "Chunky Monkey"

Writing- Write Trait- Ideas

"I can tell more about the most important details"

Math We are finishing up our unit on patterns this week. Please watch for the assessment going home this week to be signed and returned. We will begin Unit 2 which is numbers to 20. Suggested activities will again be sent home to support your child's learning.

You & Your World-

This week our focus is on friendship.

Curriculum outcomes:

1.1.1c Understand that friends are important to ones happiness.

1.1.3E Demonstrate the ability to resolve conflicts through cooperation and peaceful means.