

Newsletter

Mrs. Coulombe's Class January 16-20th

January brings cold temperatures, so please make sure your child arrives each day in snow pants as we are outside unless temperatures are below -20 degrees. *Please make sure to pack extra socks and mittens in your child's book bag.

Hot lunch forms are going home this week. Please be sure to return these on the due date.

Homework

Home reading begins this week and the books your child brings home this week are based on their independent level as of December. Your child may also bring home a poem for reading this week.

Please read each night!

*Students who are reading text above level I will only bring one book home due to the length of the story.

What We will Learn this Week

Literacy-

This week we will continue with our Penguin theme. We will read lots of fiction and non-fiction books about penguins and do lots of writing.

Sight words for the week-
did, then, will, over and now.

Phonics-

Working on double consonants wh and ph
We will continue working with contractions for will, is, and are. (He is= he's, she will=she'll, they are=they're)

Math-

N1- Say the number sequence 0-50 forwards and backwards and from any stop and start number. For example, start at 35 and stop at 48. Start at 49 and stop at 23. Continue counting by 5's to 50, and 10's to 100.

N9 Demonstrate an understanding of addition with answers to 12 and corresponding subtraction facts. Please note that we do not memorize math facts, but look at strategies.

You and Your World -Groups- Mapping and legends Community unit

1.4.2 Demonstrate an understanding that signs, symbols, direction and scale are used to represent landmarks and locations.