April

Fredericton High School

CAREER EXPLORATION 110 APPLICATION

Career Exploration 110 is designed for students wishing to explore their career potential through self-assessment and workplace experience. Due to the experiential nature of this two-credit course, Career Exploration 110 has limited enrolment.

This application must be completed in full and returned to Ms. Hiltz's mailbox. The attached reference forms should be given to two of your teachers that are willing to support your application for Career Exploration. Your teachers will return the reference forms directly to the Career Exploration Teacher. Following receipt of your application and the attached reference forms, you will be notified of an interview or of why your application has not been accepted. Please read this application carefully. Interviews will be held in April/May. The scheduling of an interview does not mean acceptance into Career Exploration. You will be notified of your acceptance or non-acceptance in May/June.
