Doctor for a Day at DMNB

Friday, November 1, 2019 | 7:30 AM - 5:00 PM

Dalhousie Medicine New Brunswick | Saint John, NB

Ever dreamed of becoming a doctor? Experience what it's like to be a medical student here at DMNB for a day of learning how to:

- Suture a wound
- Take someone's vitals
- Test someone's reflexes
- Perform a basic eye exam

You'll also get to start the day with a smudge ceremony led by UNB Elder-in-Residence Ramona Nicholas and participate in a sharing circle with local health science professionals.

Spaces are limited, so please contact Tara O'Donnell to reserve your spot today at tara@uosfc.ca

[Lunch and snacks will be provided!]
