Week of May  $19^{th}$

Bonjour tout le monde!

This week, if you feel like practicing French, you can complete however many activities you like from the PIF Choice Board below.

A French Phone Call	French Lesson With A Friend
Call somebody and open with "Bonjour!" See how far you can get into the conversation. Test your French skills and the person you call. Here are some possible conversation starters:	Ask somebody you know speaks from very well to teach you a new word or phrase. Practice saying it in a few sentences.
<ul> <li>Comment vas-tu aujourd'hui?</li> <li>Que fais-tu aujourd'hui?</li> </ul>
Download An App	Listen to French Radio/Podcast
Duolingo is a good example of the many fun and easy apps that are out there to practice a new language and continue to learn new words and phrases. Download the app and start a lesson in whatever theme you like.	In Fredericton, you can always get ICI Radio Canada at 102.3 to listen to the news in French. There are also many great podcasts out there. A couple of my favourites are "Learn French by Podcast" and "Duolingo French Podcast."
List of Conversation Starters	Teach Somebody
Create a little list of conversation starters in French. Try it out with a friend or family member. There are many great websites with lists of phrases like this to get you started.	Do you know somebody that really does not speak any French? This could be a family member you live with, a younger sibling or maybe a grandparent. Try to teach them a couple of simple words and phrases. Here are a couple great sentences to start with: - Bonjour! - Je m'appelle - Comment ça va?

Passez tous une bonne semaine!

Au revoir!
