Sharing Truths: A series of Wabanaki Experiences

Waponahkiyik (Wabanaki People) are enriched with stories that create balance in the world around them. Waponahkiyik acknowledge their teachings as truths. You are invited to join us as we explore realities by by Waponahkiyik Artists, Citizens, and Knowledge Caretakers as they voice their experiences, practices and teachings. Through a series of conversations and presentations you will learn and understand more about Waponahkiyik who reside in Ekpahak.

On September 28 – Orange Shirt Day ...

Judie Acquin will share the truths of her Grandmother Virginia Acquin and Great Aunt Doris who were sent to Shubenacadie Residential School in Nova Scotia.

One returned to Ekpahak and the other did not.

As a descendent, Judie will share parts of their story, discuss intergenerational impacts, and her path to healing.

September 28, 2022 – 6: 30 p.m.

Everyone is welcome ! Suitable for all ages.
