Show what you know

 I apologize for not sending these home last week as mentioned. It took a little longer than planned to complete. We are finishing them up today and I will send home by Wednesday.

Look for a blue folder to come home this week with a 'show what you know' math worksheet. This work was completed independently in class and will give you a good idea of what skills your child has mastered and will still need to work on. 😊

Remembrance day poem: This week in class, we will be practicing a remembrance day poem to recite on Thursday for our assembly. The poem can be found on the last page if you are interested in reading it with your child. 😊

UNE BELLE FLEUR PLEINE DE SOUVENIRS

Aujourd'hui, vous restez dans nos cœurs.
En portant cette magnifique fleur,
Nous restons debout en votre honneur
Pour penser à tous ces malheurs.
Nous n'avions pas toujours le temps
De vous reconnaître sur le champ,
Quand les soldats sont tombés
Les beaux coquelicots ont poussés.
