Dear Beth,

We would like to share that we host Family Night at our restaurant weekly on Wednesday evenings from 4pm to 7pm.

To celebrate Family Literacy Day on January 27th, McDonald's Oromocto is hosting N.B. Author, Kelly Cooper, for a live book reading. Each family (up to 100) will also receive a copy of Kelly's book, If A Horse Had Words.

This event will happen this Wednesday, January 29th at McDonald's Oromocto (100 MacDonald Ave). We are hoping that you might be able to share this great event with your families.

Please let me know if you need any more information.

Sincerely,
