Name: _____   Date: _____

BUG OUT with Figurative Language!

Read the sentence and determine if it is a simile or metaphor. Color similes blue and metaphors yellow.

Similes:
Comparing two objects using "like" or "as".

Metaphors:
Comparing two objects without using "like" or "as".

My baby sister is as tiny as an ant.

The butterfly flew gracefully like an angel.

The principal is always a busy bee.

Students are the best worker ants.

She was being a wiggle worm today.

My grandpa moves slow like a snail.

Her face turned as red as a lady bug.

At recess, he was being a bug to me.

Date: _____

BUG OUT with Figurative Language!

Read the sentence and determine if it is a simile or metaphor. Color similes blue and metaphors yellow.

Similes:
Comparing two objects using "like" or "as".

Metaphors:
Comparing two objects without using "like" or "as".

My baby sister is as tiny as an ant.

The butterfly flew gracefully like an angel.

The principal is always a busy bee.

Students are the best worker ants.

She was being a wiggle worm today.

My grandpa moves slow like a snail.

Her face turned as red as a lady bug.

At recess, he was being a bug to me.

© FirstClassIn4thGrade

BUG OUT with Figurative Language!

Read the sentence and determine if it is a hyperbole or personification. Color hyperboles pink and personification green.

Hyperbole:
An exaggerated statement.

Personification:
Giving human qualities to an animal or object.

The ant hill was overflowing with a million ants.

The flower ached after the bee's visit.

The fly whizzed by, whispering in my ear.

Students are the best worker ants.

The line of slugs was never ending.

The cocoon swallowed the butterfly.

Everyone knows that snails are slow.

Time crept up on the lazy bumble bee.

© FirstClassIn4thGrade

Date: _____

BUG OUT with Figurative Language!

Read the sentence and determine if it is a hyperbole or personification. Color hyperboles pink and personification green.

Hyperbole:
An exaggerated statement.

Personification:
Giving human qualities to an animal or object.

The ant hill was overflowing with a million ants.

The flower ached after the bee's visit.

The fly whizzed by, whispering in my ear.

Students are the best worker ants.

The line of slugs was never ending.

The cocoon swallowed the butterfly.

Everyone knows that snails are slow.

Time crept up on the lazy bumble bee.

© FirstClassIn4thGrade

BUg OUT with Figurative Language!

Read the sentence and determine if it is a hyperbole or personification. Color hyperboles pink and idioms orange.

Hyperbole:
An exaggerated statement.

Idiom:
A common expression, meaning something different than what is stated.

The butterfly in the garden is always flying.

It took years for the snail to move an inch.

I asked her to quit bugging me at recess.

Spiders are the only thing he cares about.

I told my little brother to bug off.

I was a busy bee doing chores all week long.

Collecting bugs is the best idea ever.

At the concert, I had butterflies in my stomach

© FirstClassIn4thGrade

Name: ANSWER KEY! Date: _____

BUG OUT with Figurative Language!

Read the sentence and determine if it is a hyperbole or personification. Color hyperboles pink and idioms orange.

Hyperbole:
An exaggerated statement.

Idiom:
A common expression, meaning something different than what is stated.

The butterfly in the garden is always flying.

It took years for the snail to move an inch.

I asked her to quit bugging me at recess.

Spiders are the only thing he cares about.

I told my little brother to bug off.

I was a busy bee doing chores all week long.

Collecting bugs is the best idea ever.

At the concert, I had butterflies in my stomach.

© FirstClassIn4thGrade

BUG OUT with Figurative Language!

Read the sentence and determine if it is alliteration or onomatopoeia. Color alliteration purple and onomatopoeia red.

Alliteration:
The repetition of the same sound at the beginning of words.

Onomatopoeia:
Words imitating sounds.

The bumble bee sat back on the birch branch.

The green grasshopper was greedy in the garden.

Chirp! The crickets were awake.

There was a rumble inside the ant hill.

The bee continued to bzzz all summer long.

I could hear the flutter of the bug's wings.

The lovely lady bug lingered on the lily.

The fly flew by my friends fast.

Name: ANSWER KEY!   Date: _____

BUG OUT with Figurative Language!

Read the sentence and determine if it is alliteration or onomatopoeia. Color alliteration purple and onomatopoeia red.

Alliteration:
The repetition of the same sound at the beginning of words.

Onomatopoeia:
Words imitating sounds.

The bumble bee sat back on the birch branch.

The green grasshopper was greedy in the garden.

Chirp! The crickets were awake.

There was a rumble inside the ant hill.

The bee continued to bzzz all summer long.

I could hear the flutter of the bug's wings.

The lovely lady bug lingered on the lily.

The fly flew by my friends fast.

© FirstClassIn4thGrade

BUG OUT with Figurative Language!

Read the sentence and determine what figurative language is being used. Color according to the color key.

Similes: Blue   Hyperboles: Pink   Alliteration: Purple
Metaphors: Yellow   Personification: Green Onomatopoeia: Red
                     Idioms: Orange

The rollie pollie was tiny like a pebble.

You could see that giant ant hill from outer space.

The cocoon was a snug bed for the caterpillar.

The spider scared my sister, Sarah.

I am not to bug anyone while working.

The fly flew as quick as an airplane.

The cricket played music for hours.

There was a faint bzz, and then I saw a mosquito.

© FirstClassIn4thGrade

Name: ANSWER KEY!   Date: _____

BUG OUT with Figurative Language!

Read the sentence and determine what figurative language is being used. Color according to the color key.

Similes: Blue   Hyperboles: Pink   Alliteration: Purple
Metaphors: Yellow   Personification: Green   Onomatopoeia: Red
Idioms: Orange

The rollie pollie was tiny like a pebble.

You could see that giant ant hill from outer space.

The cocoon was a snug bed for the caterpillar.

The spider scared my sister, Sarah.

I am not to bug anyone while working.

The fly flew as quick as an airplane.

The cricket played music for hours.

There was a faint bzz, and then I saw a mosquito.

© FirstClassIn4thGrade

Name: _____   Date: _____

BUg OUT with Figurative Language!

Your turn! Write examples of each of the different figurative language in sentences. Color according to the color key.

Similes: Blue	Hyperboles: Pink	Alliteration: Purple
Metaphors: Yellow	Personification: Green	Onomatopoeia: Red
	Idioms: Orange

© FirstClassIn4thGrade

BUG OUT with Figurative Language!

Your turn! Write examples of each of the different figurative language in sentences. Color according to the color key.

Similes: Blue   Hyperboles: Pink   Alliteration: Purple
Metaphors: Yellow   Personification: Green   Onomatopoeia: Red
                       Idioms: Orange

Name: _____   Date: _____

BUg OUT with Figurative Language!

Your turn! Write examples of each of the different figurative language in sentences. Underline your sentences with the correct color.

Similes: Blue
Metaphors: Yellow

Hyperboles: Pink
Personification: Green
Idioms: Orange

Alliteration: Purple
Onomatopoeia: Red

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

BUG OUT with Figurative Language!

Name: _____   Date: _____

Your turn! Write examples of the different figurative language in sentences. Trade with a partner when complete. Have your partner underline the sentence with the correct color.

Similes: Blue
Metaphors: Yellow

Hyperboles: Pink
Personification: Green
Idioms: Orange

Alliteration: Purple
Onomatopoeia: Red

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

BUg OUT with Figurative Language!

Your turn! Write examples of each of the indicated figurative language examples on the lines below.

1. _____

Simile

2. _____

Metaphor

3. _____

Hyperbole

4. _____

Personification

5. _____

Idiom

6. _____

Alliteration

7. _____

Onomatopoeia

BUg OUT with Figurative Language!

Your turn! Write examples of each of the indicated figurative language examples on the lines below.

1. _____

Write a simile about a lady bug.

2. _____

Write a metaphor about a bug bite.

3. _____

Write a hyperbole about a cocoon.

4. _____

Use personification and a grasshopper in the sentence.

5. _____

Use the idiom "busy as a bee" in a sentence.

6. _____

Write an alliteration with the letter "B".

7. _____

Use onomatopoeia to describe flying.

BUG OUT with Figurative Language!

Your turn! Write examples of each of the indicated figurative language examples on the lines below.

1. _____

Write a simile about wings.

2. _____

Write a metaphor about an ant hill.

3. _____

Write a hyperbole about a spider.

4. _____

Use personification and a garden in the sentence.

5. _____

Use the idiom "bug off" in a sentence.

6. _____

Write an alliteration with the letter "G".

7. _____

Use onomatopoeia to describe a bug.