Re: 2017 Minister's Excellence in Education Awards

Dear Educator:

Do you know an exemplary fellow educator who exhibits a strong dedication to teaching? The 2017 Minister's Excellence in Teaching Award will recognize and honour dynamic educators throughout the K-12 school system as well as the early-learning and child-care centres who have displayed outstanding skills in supporting all learners.

Ten (10) educators from the four Anglophone school districts will be presented a Minister's Excellence in Teaching Award at a ceremony on November 18, 2017 in Fredericton.

ASD-North: 2      ASD-East: 2      ASD-South: 3      ASD-West: 3

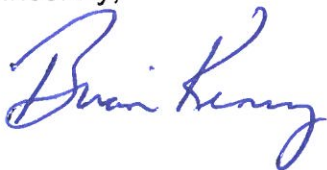

The ceremony will bring together leaders in education from across the province, and recognize the award winners' contributions – their demonstration of leadership as well as exceptional commitment and dedication to student learning.

Educators, including school administrators, teachers, and early childhood workers, currently employed in the province's Anglophone system are eligible to be nominated for the 2017 Ministers' Excellence in Education Award. Further criteria for nomination are noted on the new form. The nomination form can be downloaded from the GNB website (http://www2.gnb.ca/content/gnb/en/departments/education/k12/content/anglophone\_sector/awards.html)

A nomination form that can be completed electronically is also attached for your convenience. Completed nominations are to be submitted to your district office by end of day June 9, 2017.

I encourage you to nominate deserving educators from your district for this year's Minister's Excellence in Education Award.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Brian Kenny".

Hon. Brian Kenny
Minister

Minister's Excellence in Education Award

Nomination Form 2016-2017 School Year

The purpose is to recognize and honour dynamic educators who have displayed outstanding skill in supporting the diverse needs of all learners.

The Excellence in Education Award is designed to:

- recognize the high calibre of educators working in our early learning and child care centres and schools;
- enhance the image of education in general and learning in particular; and
- inform the general public about excellence in early learning and child care centres and schools.

Awards

Ten educators will be selected to receive the Minister's Excellence in Education Awards:

ASD-North: 2      ASD-East: 2      ASD-South: 3      ASD-West: 3

The awards will be presented by the Minister of Education and Early Childhood Development during a special ceremony to be held on November 18, 2017 in Fredericton.

Eligibility Criteria

This year the awards will be given to educators throughout our system including schools and, for the first time, those who work in early learning and child care centres.

All educators and administrators currently employed in the province's Anglophone school system are eligible to be nominated for the 2016-17 Minister's Excellence in Education Award.

The recipients will be chosen for demonstrating evidence of excellence in the following four areas:

Innovative educational practices and leadership

- Demonstrate a deep commitment to education, and a personal accountability for learning.
- Demonstrate a thorough understanding of current pedagogical theory and effective practices.
- Continually gather evidence of learners' needs and strengths and provide feedback and support.
- Use strategies and activities that challenge and support learners to build problem-solving and teamwork skills, develop self-management habits, become critical thinkers and learners, and be confident in their pursuit of knowledge and skills.
- Use strategies and practices that include the development of literacy and numeracy.
- Use technology and innovative practices effectively to increase engagement and learning.
- Demonstrate leadership skills by sharing practices and encouraging the potential of others.

Responding to the diverse needs of all learners

- Encourage and support every learner's physical, academic and social involvement.
- Show flexibility, imagination and persistence in providing learners with opportunities for engagement in learning experiences and the community.
- Understand each learner's individual strengths and challenges.
- Ensure that appropriate accommodations and interventions are respected and in place.
- Recognize and provide various ways that learners to demonstrate their knowledge and skills.

Lifelong learning

- Demonstrate a commitment to personal continuous learning.
- Exhibit professionalism and participate in a professional learning community or organization.
- Contribute to the continuous improvement of the learning community based on research.

Fostering a positive learning environment

- Actively participate in the development of an effective learning environment.
- Manage activities and behaviour to create an environment of respect and rapport where every learner feels safe and welcome.
- Encourage and recognize children/students as they learn and contribute to the learning of others.
- Create a culture of high expectations for learners involving inquiry, innovation and risk-taking.
- Inspire learners to dream big, set ambitious goals, and plan for success.
- Challenge and support learners to take on leadership roles.
- Build relationships with individual learners and effective communications with families.
- Develop collaborative relationships with organizations to increase resources and find supports.

Selection of Recipients

- Minister's Excellence in Education Award recipients are chosen by the District Education Councils in co-operation with the Superintendent, District Early Childhood Directors, or designate.
- Nominees will be evaluated on the evidence of exemplary achievements in the four areas described above.
