Custodial Guardian

Immigration Canada requires parents to appoint a Custodial Guardian to be legally responsible for their child in their absence during his/her study in Canada. If a parent will be accompanying their child, normally a Custodial Guardian is not required.

The mother will be living with their child in Canada during his/her study in School District 8

The father will be living with their child in Canada during his/her study in School District 8

OR

The parents have appointed the following person as the Legal Guardian. Attached are notarized letters (one signed by the parent and one signed by the Legal Guardian in Canada) confirming the appointment. A Legal Guardian must be a Canadian Citizen or a Permanent Resident. I understand that I will not be provided with a final Letter of Acceptance until I provide notarized letters (one signed by the parent and one signed by the Custodial Guardian in Canada).

PLEASE ATTACH A COPY OF YOUR NOTARIZED LEGAL GUARDIAN AGREEMENT
