February 8 to 10, 2023 for an online interactive experience:

Forum for Young Canadians: Summit 360

Our Country, our Communities, and You.

Calling all students ages 15 to 18. Forum for Young Canadians is back! Join a dynamic gathering of young people from across the country to meet, engage with, network with, and learn from leaders, decision-makers, and other young Canadians about how our country works and the role you can play in its future.

STUDENTS: Have you ever considered what it means to be Canadian? Do you want to meet other young Canadians who share the same passion for making a difference? If so, then Forum is for you! Talk to your parents or guardian or teacher about registering for the Forum Summit 360.

EDUCATORS: Do you work with students who are interested in learning more about our institutions, government processes, and Indigenous governance structures? Are you looking for a way to make civics more exciting and meaningful? Encourage your students to register for Forum's Summit 360 or register your entire class and participate together!

PARENTS/GUARDIANS/OTHERS: Forum Summit 360 will provide young people with an opportunity to actively engage with other young people from across Canada to learn, engage, and build networks through plenaries, interactive workshops, virtual tours and peer-to-peer activities. Do you know someone who would be interested? Encourage them to register today!

REGISTRATION INFORMATION: Visit www.forum.ca to register. Register early for a chance to meet and network with a Senator or Member of Parliament! Registration closes January 23, 2023.

Day 3, Friday Feb 10

11 a.m. – 5 p.m. ET

Powered by the Rideau Hall Foundation, Forum for Young Canadians: Summit 360 will bring students 15-18 years old together from communities across Canada to learn, engage, and build networks through a variety of plenaries, interactive workshops, virtual tours, peer-to-peer activities, a youth civics fair, and a chance to network with Parliamentarians. Participants will have the opportunity to:

1. Learn more about the various levels of government, Indigenous and northern governance models, citizenship, and decision-making processes in Canada.
2. Create meaningful relationships with other youth from across Canada that share similar interests and a passion to make a difference.
3. Build an understanding and commitment towards Canada's parliamentary democracy with an awareness and acumen for why democracy matters.
4. Increase their civic onboarding and opportunities for civic engagement by exploring and supporting personal and collective contributions to their communities and country.
