A note from your SRC president...Feysal Ali

Welcome Vikings, old and new.

Today we embark on the beginning of a great year. As your student council president I am looking forward to working with the rest of the SRC to plan an abundance of activities for you.

HVHS is the best school. We have great teams and clubs for you to join. Take your pick from basketball, football, soccer, or rugby. Or why not join SCENES, band, choir or the newspaper? We have something to fit everyone's interests and preferences. We have many extremely fun events here at HVHS including barbeques, coffee houses, dances and our very own Relay for Life which happens later in the year.

Make the most out of your high school experience and get involved.

A special welcome to our new grade nine students. I look forward to helping you make the most of your experience at HVHS! Go Vikings.

The trip to Europe with the Harbour View Choral Ensemble was definitely one of the best experiences of my life. Not only did I get to visit four amazing countries that I'd never been to before, but I got to do it with my best friends.

It's difficult to choose one stand out moment of the trip, because I loved all of it, but there is something that comes to mind. Amsterdam was one of my favourite cities, and it is also home to one of the most historical places in the world: The Anne Frank Museum. After eating supper at a Jamie Oliver restaurant, we walked to the museum. The number of people lining up outside was ridiculous, but thankfully we skipped the crowds and started the tour almost immediately. The moment I stepped foot into the building, the atmosphere changed, and everyone became very quiet. We walked slowly from room to room, looking at pictures of Anne and her family on the walls. It was really eerie. But nothing compares to the moment we all stepped behind the bookcase and into the Secret Annex. Seeing firsthand where the Frank family hid during World War II was a once in a lifetime experience. I never thought that I'd be able to stand in Anne Frank's bedroom and look at her posters and photos that are still on the walls, and see the place where she wrote her diary. That is something I will never forget.

From the editor

By Jon Taylor

Last year when I was approached about the position of editor I wasn't sure what to think. I'm not a journalist, nor do I have any experience in the field, but if there is one thing that I have a passion for it is exposure. Exposing people to things they should know about, things they otherwise wouldn't know; basically - news.

I am a believer that being informed is one of the greatest powers available to us; so be prepared to be empowered with knowledge of the most useless crap that I find important for whatever reason. My problem with most papers is that they feel very dry, so my personal goal is to soak this paper in the juices of voice and personality. Harbour View is a very vibrant and exciting place, and I hope to convey that.

Welcome back and best of luck!

There will be a meeting for SCENES 2013 on Tuesday, 10 September at 12:35 in the auditorium! This is for everyone interested in participating in SCENES: actors, directors, singers, dancers, choreographers, tech crew! Everyone is welcome!

HVHS CHORAL ENSEMBLE

The Harbour View High School Choral ensemble will begin rehearsals on Wednesday, September 11 at 3:45 in the auditorium. All returning and new members are welcome! Why join a choir? Singing together with your fellow students can bring new meaning to your high school experience. You will gain friendship, musicianship and pride in yourself and your school. It is also a great way to train your voice for other singing opportunities (HVHS Musical anyone?) Hope to see you there!
