Good Afternoon,

This is Greg Norton, Principal (Acting) of Loch Lomond School, here with a few announcements regarding upcoming events at your school for the week of May 8th – 12th.

A reminder that school clothing orders have arrived and are available for pick-up at the school office.

Yearbook order forms have been sent home and are due back no later than Monday, May 8th. If you prefer to order your Loch Lomond School Yearbook online, that option is available and is easy as one, two, three!

Loch Lomond Home & School Assoc. is looking for gently used items for the children to purchase for our upcoming Mother's/Father's Day sale that will be held on Friday May 12th. Children will be able to purchase an item for $1. Please have your donated items in by May 10th.

Fine Arts Gala "Reserve" Tickets are on sale. Two "Reserve" tickets are available for each participating student family. Remaining tickets go on sale starting Friday, May 12th on a first come first serve basis. . Tickets are $5.00 each and are available at the school administrative office. Please note that only 175 tickets are available for this special event.

Hoop Dreams Registration now open! This annual event is a 3 on 3 youth basketball tournament in support of the Children's Wish Foundation and is being held on Saturday September 30th at Exhibition Park. Interested teams can register at www.hoopdreams.ca

Tuesday, May 9th The Saint John String Quartet will be at Loch Lomond School to perform and inspire our students. The Saint John String Quartet attracted a Juno nomination with their fourth album in the Classical Composition of the Year category and a Music NB award for Best Album of the Year. The quartet is widely recognized for their leadership and contributions to the musical development of youth and the orchestral community in NB.

Wednesday, May 10th students who have submitted consent forms will receive their regular fluoride treatment to help keep those smiles happy!

Thursday, May 10th is our annual Numeracy night. Please RSVP if you haven't already done so. This night is sure to please with many fun activities to count on. Thank you to Mrs. Vaughan for her leadership to make this special evening happen and the support received from the entire faculty and staff.

Thursday, May 11th is our Kindergarten Orientation Day. Invitations for this event have been sent home to families of our New K students attending in September 2017. Children will participate in kindergarten activities and will have the chance to discover what a kindergarten classroom is all about. While the children are visiting the classrooms, parents will meet with school staff. Also at this time children and parents will participate in a bus tour and a bus safety discussion with a member of the district transportation team. Thank you to Mrs. Bartlett, Mrs. Hatt and Mrs. Hodder for making this first school learning experience possible.

Thursday, May 11th the Scholastic Book Fair opens its doors. This event is made possible because of dedicated volunteers and teachers led by Mrs. Hodder. Come out and support the Scholastic Book Fair and help promote the love of reading all at the same time.

For a complete list of the week's activities & future events please refer to the Loch Lomond School website or follow us on Twitter @LochLomondNB. If you have any questions or concerns regarding the before mentioned announcements please call the school office @ 658-5350. We always welcome your feedback on how to make our school a better place to learn and visit!

Yours in Education,

Greg Norton
Principal (Acting)
