

Exam Exemption Guidelines

Students are eligible to apply for ONE exam exemption per semester under either attendance or academic criteria.

Attendance Criteria	Academic Criteria
- Maximum of 5 absences per	- Minimum mark of 85% in semester in any one class.	course student wishes to exempt.
- Passing all 5 courses.	 Passing all 5 courses.
- 2 tardies = 1 absence	 All major assessment
- All major assessment	components (other than finals) in components (other than finals) in	all 5 courses must be complete.
all 5 courses must be complete.	- A subject may only be exempted
- A subject may only be exempted	once.
once.

- Bereavement (maximum 5 days) does not count against the student.
- Verifiable religious observance does not count against the student.
- Appointments with a specialist, for students with chronic illness, are not counted as long as a doctor's note is provided.
- Legal obligations with supporting documentation do not count against the student.
- Out of school suspension counts against the student. In-school suspension does not.
- Students may not exempt AP or on-line courses.
- Due to the nature of the new guidelines, there are no appeals.