

In partnership with Parasport NB, the Department of Education and Early Childhood Education is pleased to offer the following opportunities for educators to share with students.

Parasport NB has recorded videos of four New Brunswick Paralympian athletes who competed at the Summer Paralympics in 2021 in Tokyo. These videos are available in both English and French for viewing at the links below:

1. Danielle Dorris (Para Swimming): Danielle Dorris \(EN\) Danielle Dorris \(FR\)
2. Kamyille Frenette (Para Triathlon): Kamyille Frenette \(EN\) Kamyille Frenette \(FR\)
3. Danielle Duplessis (Wheelchair Basketball): Danielle Duplessis \(EN\) Danielle Duplessis \(FR\)
4. Colin Higgins (Wheelchair Basketball): Colin Higgins Video \(EN\) Colin Higgins \(FR subtitles\)

For more information about the athletes, Parasport NB and the Canadian Paralympic Committee, please visit the website below: <https://nbed.sharepoint.com/sites/ParasportsNB>.

Students who may be eligible to participate in Parasports are able to connect with para-athletes in a one-on-one or small group setting to learn more about the opportunities available. To connect a student to the Parasport NB organization, please contact either Sally Hutt at sally.hutt@parasportnb.ca or Simon Richard at simon.richard@parasportnb.ca. For eligibility requirements, please refer to the attached document: Parasport NB classification.

Parasport NB is the Provincial Sport Organization for the parasport of wheelchair basketball and wheelchair rugby. They are also the umbrella organization for the Paralympic Sports development in the province of New Brunswick.

If you have any questions about these opportunities, please contact Julie McAllister at julie.mcallister@gnb.ca.
